

The Greeks Topic Menu Homework

Choose your homework from the menu below. This is in addition to weekly literacy and maths homework. You should aim to complete 4 pieces of work from this list before the end of term, however, you could do more if you would like to! The 'Peri-ometer' colour chart suggests the difficulty or challenge each task may offer. These are just ideas – if there is an area of our topic that really interests you, please feel free to adapt the homework activity.

Write a short story involving one of the Greek Gods. This can be made up or be based on facts.	Learn a poem to recite to your family or the class that has a Greek theme or is based on a fable/myth.	Create a Powerpoint/poster about an area of Ancient Greece that interest you.	Design and make a Spartan helmet.
Dress up someone at home like an Ancient Greek, take a picture and label what you used to make the outfit.	Make an A-Z of Greece. Think about presenting your work in the best way possible. What could you do on the border? You could add an illustration to each or some of the letters along with small pictures linked to your sentences.	Create a timeline of at least six events which are memorable in Ancient Greece.	Design your own Greek shield. You could either make this as a to scale model or make a smaller shield for your favourite toy or teddy.
Who was Pythagoras? How is he linked to maths? What is Pythagoras' theory? Present your findings – use diagrams to explain what you have learnt.	Write an advert persuading people to visit the ancient Olympic Games.	Find out some simple Greek phrases. E.g Hello, How are you? What's your name? etc.	Cook some Greek food or a meal. Write up the recipes. Can you include a photo of your creation too?
Create a bar chart to show some information about the Olympic Games. You could think about how many times countries have won or which event GB have won most medals in.	Find out about the Greek alphabet and present your findings in an exciting way.	Find out what life was like for children in Ancient Greece. How will you present your information?	Create a picture of an imaginary Greek God. Make sure your poster is eye-catching and full of facts and information. Try to think of a symbol for your God.

Please present your homework to the best of your ability. House points and prizes will be awarded for exceptional pieces of homework.
